The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the cultural context of the research. It highlights the need for researchers to be sensitive to the values and beliefs of the communities they are studying. This is particularly important in the field of health care, where cultural differences can significantly impact patient outcomes and the effectiveness of interventions.

The second part of the paper focuses on the methodology used in the study. It describes the process of selecting participants, collecting data, and analyzing the results. The authors emphasize the importance of using a mixed-methods approach, which combines both quantitative and qualitative data to provide a more comprehensive understanding of the research topic.

The third part of the paper presents the findings of the study. It discusses the results of the quantitative analysis, which showed a significant correlation between the variables being studied. The authors also present the results of the qualitative analysis, which provided valuable insights into the experiences and perspectives of the participants.

The final part of the paper discusses the implications of the findings for practice and policy. It suggests that the results of the study can be used to inform the development of culturally sensitive health care interventions and policies. The authors also discuss the limitations of the study and suggest areas for future research.

On top of the WORLD!

The best part about being a senior is the way teachers treat you... a little more like adults rather than kids, and just knowing that this part's almost over. It's been fun, but it's time to move on. And knowing we get out of school before everyone else is pretty cool. - Keeley Snelson

Knowing that you're at the top and about to leave, and of course always being the first ones to everything! Also that sense of leadership you have when you're a senior is good too. Basically being a senior just ROCKS! - Jeremy Briggs

Basically, we do what we want. - Matthew Bulva

Some advice to the freshmen— respect your elders, especially teachers and seniors. Just because you are funny and cool with kids your own age, doesn't mean everyone else will like you. - Shawn Worthen

To the freshmen- make sure your bags are zipped, your shoes are tied, have fun at GCHS, and have your friends by your side. - Jacquisha Johnson

I would say to be as active as you possibly can. I joined everything and though I may have been occasionally stressed I had the greatest time. Without the extra curricular I believe I would have hated school, now I love it! - Stephanie Huff

Don't hang out with the "bad crowd" kids, they may look cool at first, but really will only make your life harder. - Eric Koskie

Times Are A' Changing!

Since my freshmen year the thing that has changed the most is the people. When I was a freshman everyone was squeaky voiced and short, while the upper classmen were hairy and massive, but now as the years have passed so have the people, and in came a new group of tiny little people whom we all tower over. It's weird seeing everyone grow up. - Paige Barnes

The way you look at the school is so different from freshmen year to senior year. It is very big when you are a freshmen, and when you're a senior its not intimidating at all. - William Ellington

The gym wasn't in the best of shape my freshmen year, but they re-did it and it looks great, same thing with the performing arts center. - Zach Scaturro

The rules have gotten a lot more strict since my freshmen year. It's madness. - Emily Stone

Please Remember

One person I will never forget is Stephanie Civar, because on my first day of school she befriended me and took me in. If it weren't for her, I wouldn't have the friends I have now.
- Erica Stewart

The one person I'll never forget is Mr. Hutchings because he was a wonderful teacher and the only person to ever make me enjoy reading. - Kelly Bone

I will never forget any of my friends!! They were the only reason why I ever wanted to come to school.
- Meagan Morris

I'll remember Ms. Sullivan the most. She's an amazing teacher and an even more amazing person. She loves what she does and you can tell. She encourages all of her students to be all that they can be... and she can be a little bit funny, I guess. - Whitney Glasgow

Before we had Jack in the Box, local youths gathered at the local Park-N-Eat in downtown Granite. This hangout was located across the street from the hospital where Huck's stands today.

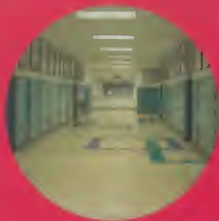

The newly remodeled Leader store opened its doors in 1935 at the corner of 19th St. and State. This store had hard-to-find merchandise and lower-than-usual prices.

Are you afraid of the ACT?

I'm somewhat scared of the ACT because there are so many things that depend on your score.
- Samantha DePew

Not really. It is just a test to me. I do not really care about tests.
-Shawn Dillard

I am scared of the ACT because I always get really nervous on huge tests and sometimes go blank.
- Megan Curtin

I am afraid of the ACT because it sticks with you the rest of your life.

Have your friends changed a lot since high school?

My friends haven't changed a lot since high school. We've all changed a little, but we still do the same things. - Josh Hubbard

I have not seen any major changes in my peers since we started high school. - Luke Lancaster

I don't have the same friends. I myself is another story, I have changed in many ways (physically and mentally). - Matt Reyes

They have changed their personalities and looks, but our friendship has not changed much.

What is the hardest class you're taking?

My hardest class is history, because i don't like it or understand it.
- Brittney Dicki

Right now my hardest
class is Physics.
- Mary Ryan

My hardest class would have to be Algebra 4.
- Nicole Burten

To me the hardest class is American History 4A.
- Vernon Mathis

● Class Of 2007 ●

How do you feel about your upcoming senior year?

I think it is going to be a big year for all of us. It should be pretty fun but it will probably be pretty hard. – Blake Reed

I think it is going to be fun and I'm excited.
– Kyle McGovern

I cannot wait for senior year. I am looking forward to all the activities. Messing with the younger classmen will be fun too. – Shane Recer

I anticipate my senior year because I am ready to move on to college and better things.
– Ashley Jameson

How different is this year from your freshman year?

It is not really different. You know more of what to expect at the beginning of school.

- Amanda Dunn

This year is different from my freshman year because the classes are harder, I know my way around better, and I can pick on the freshmen.

- Josh Davison

I know more people and I know my way around better than last year.

kids look down at us.
- Rachael Gavlick

No, it felt pretty bad when people did that to me so I try to avoid it. They do not really bother me anyway.
- Zachary Guenther

Yes, I do look down on freshmen. I kind of got

Is your freshmen year what you expected it to be?

I expected that I would be picked on by all seniors because I thought seniors acted like they are all big and bad but they actually do not. They are all really nice and I love high school!

-Kacee Marshall

No, I thought it would be more confusing getting to classes and the work would be a lot easier.

What's the biggest difference between middle school and high school?

It is a lot bigger and very crowded. There are also a lot of hot chicks.
-Casey Zaring

There are a lot of people in the halls so they are really crowded. The teachers are much harder too.

-Candi Hoodenpytle

High school is a lot bigger and harder. Now we have six minutes between classes and we have class with kids all ages.

IT'S ALL FUN AND GAMES

"I think it is more important to have fun because when you're having fun it brings the team together and you play better."

- Ashley Shrum- Senior

"I think that if you're dedicated and work hard and you know that you are doing your best then you'll have fun and win."

- Carrie Bisto- Junior

"I think both are important because it's always fun to win but when you try to hard to win it takes the fun out of it."

- Kelly Benz- Junior

"I'd say have fun because it's more important to have fun with your teammates than win a game you'll forget about in a couple years."

- Ashley Gordon- Soph.

Alex Hartwick, Kourtney Vaughn, Ashley Shrum, Jill Ravanelli, Emily Stone, and Nyla Cauble hang out before their game.

Emily Stone passes the ball to the front row.

Quality Time on the Court

I have enjoyed the quality time with the coaches and my teammates for the past four years.

- Marley Coghlan, Senior

It was nice to get to know my friends and the coaches on a more social level than in a classroom.

- Paige Maynard, Junior

I really liked playing with everyone. Everyone got along which made it fun. The coaches were good and they taught us well.

- Hannah Foster, Junior

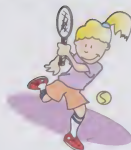

I love how the tennis team is more like a family than a bunch of teammates.

- Rachael Gavlick, Sophomore

1. Hannah Wadlow is ready to ace the opponent.
2. Sujin Kim runs back to smash an overhead.
3. Tessa Gavilsky owns the competition.

As Good As It Gets...

"It's exciting we got to go to state. It's too bad we lost, but it just prepares us for the years to come."

-Lauren Courtway, Senior

"We worked really hard all season. It's sad we had to come up short."

-Alex Hartwick, Junior

"It felt really good to go to state. It's a shame we lost, but we had a good time."

-Tessa Gavilsky, Junior

"It was exciting, especially as a freshman since they haven't been in a long time. The experience was awesome."

-Erika Prazma, Sophomore

The 2005 girls soccer team pose for a picture after their sectional game against the Edwardsville Tigers. The game entered double overtime with a score of 1-1, and Alex Hartwick scored the winning goal, advancing the girls team to state. At state, the soccer team faced New Trier, and ended up losing 5-2. Although they lost, the girls accomplished so much in their season.

An Enchanted Evening

1. The cheerleading squad gives one last cheer to their senior squad members.

2. Jenna Ely and Amanda Bennett enter the gym during May Carousel.

3. Billy Street and Tara Baumeier dance one last time.

4. Jamie Davis, Amy Steen, Courtney Jerden, Lyndsi Meyenburg, Olivia Antognoli, and Ashley Bush look elegant for May Carousel.

5. Jenny Schooley bows for her homecoming queen.

6. Colorguard gives their seniors a good-bye performance.

8.

The tradition of May Carousel dates all the way back to 1923. Since then, May Carousel is the school district's way of presenting the senior girls to the community. It shows how the young girls have grown from kindergartners to young ladies. The Maypole Dance has been performed every year. As the girls dance to "Waltz of the Flowers," they weave the ribbons that represent their lives. The last weave shows how high school has woven their lives together. The final dropping of their ribbons represents how their relationships will end in a few short weeks, with each of the girls going their separate ways.

12.

8. Alex Kwiatkowski escorts Megan Gaylick to her throne.

9. Sarah Barton looks beautiful as she enters the gym.

10. The 2005 May Carousel senior girls.

11. Senior girls carry on the time honored tradition of the Maypole Dance.

12. The Dance Team performs one last time for their senior members.

On Friday, May 27, the senior class of 2005 graduated. The ceremony was held at the Nelson Hagnauer Memorial Athletic Complex at 7:00 P.M. At the beginning of graduation, Hannah Goins sang the National Anthem. The Pledge of Allegiance was said by the Summa Cum Laude graduates. Then, Lacey Gamblin, Andrea Patton, and Joey Lofink addressed their fellow graduates. During the ceremony, Sara Lipusan sang "God Bless America." By the end of the night, Principal, Jerry McKechnan, and the superintendent of schools, Dr. Ken Perkins, presented the class of 2005 their diplomas. Despite the rain during graduation, every senior left looking forward to what lies ahead.

5. The class of 2005 walks into the graduation ceremony.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the cultural context of the research. It highlights the need for researchers to be sensitive to the values and beliefs of the communities they are studying. This is particularly important in the field of health research, where cultural differences can significantly impact the effectiveness of interventions.

The second part of the paper presents a case study of a health intervention in a rural community. The study found that the intervention was more successful when it was tailored to the local culture and beliefs. This suggests that a one-size-fits-all approach is not always the best solution.

The third part of the paper discusses the challenges of conducting research in a culturally diverse environment. It notes that researchers often face difficulties in finding a common ground between their own cultural perspectives and those of the community. This can lead to misunderstandings and conflicts.

The fourth part of the paper offers some suggestions for how to overcome these challenges. It suggests that researchers should take the time to learn about the community's culture and beliefs before conducting their research. This can help them to design a more effective and culturally sensitive intervention.

In conclusion, the paper emphasizes the importance of cultural sensitivity in research. It argues that researchers should not only be aware of the cultural differences between themselves and the community they are studying, but also should actively seek to understand and respect those differences.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Act 1983, 1993). The prevalence of mental health problems in the UK is estimated to be 10% (Mental Health Act 1983, 1993).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of people with mental health problems in the workplace. The Mental Health Act 1983 (1993) states that employers have a duty to provide a safe and healthy working environment for their employees. This duty includes the need to take steps to prevent the occurrence of mental health problems in the workplace. The Health and Safety Commission (1997) has estimated that the cost of mental health problems to the UK economy is £1.5 billion per year. This cost is made up of the cost of lost productivity, the cost of health care, and the cost of social services.

The Health and Safety Commission (1997) has also estimated that the cost of mental health problems to the UK economy is £1.5 billion per year. This cost is made up of the cost of lost productivity, the cost of health care, and the cost of social services. the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1999. The public sector has grown from 10% of the economy to 17% of the economy.

There is a growing emphasis on the need to improve the efficiency of the public sector. This has led to a number of initiatives, including the introduction of competition, the restructuring of public services, and the introduction of performance targets.

One of the main reasons for the need to improve the efficiency of the public sector is the increasing pressure on public finances. The government has to spend more on public services, but it has to raise less money from taxes.

Another reason for the need to improve the efficiency of the public sector is the increasing demand for public services. The population is ageing, and there is a growing need for health and social care services.

There are a number of ways in which the efficiency of the public sector can be improved. These include the introduction of competition, the restructuring of public services, and the introduction of performance targets.

One of the most important ways in which the efficiency of the public sector can be improved is by introducing competition. This can be done by allowing private companies to compete for public contracts.

Another way in which the efficiency of the public sector can be improved is by restructuring public services. This can be done by merging public services, or by transferring public services to private companies.

Finally, the efficiency of the public sector can be improved by introducing performance targets. These targets can be used to measure the performance of public services, and to identify areas for improvement.

There are a number of challenges associated with improving the efficiency of the public sector. These include the need to ensure that public services are not compromised, and the need to ensure that the public sector remains accountable to the public.

Despite these challenges, it is clear that there is a need to improve the efficiency of the public sector. This is essential for ensuring that public services are delivered in a cost-effective and high-quality manner.
